

SUBJECT: SOCIAL SCIENCE WORKSHEET

GRADE-7

CH- EQUALITY IN DEMOCRACY

A. Fill in the blanks:

1. A _____ is a group of people with the authority to rule a territory.
2. The two forms of democracies are _____ and _____.
3. _____ was the first country to adopt democracy as a form of government.
4. _____ -
5. _____ received the Noble Peace Prize for establishing a democratic government in Malaysia.
6. A political party recognised in four or more states by Election Commission is known as _____ party.
7. _____ of the Indian constitution states that no citizen shall be discriminated on the basis of religion, race, caste, sex or place of birth.
8. Article 17 has made the practise of _____ a punishable offence.
9. _____ is a political body in India which ensures free and fair elections.
10. _____, _____ and _____ are the three types of elections.

B. Name the Following:

1. In this type of democracy, the power is in hands of the people.
2. Who guarantee every Indian the right to Equality?
3. They fought against racial discrimination in South Africa.
4. Which fundamental right is being violated in the given image?

5. She is credited to have established democracy in Myanmar.
6. This organization was formed by fishermen for the rights of forest dwellers of Satpura forest.

7.

What kind of discrimination is being depicted in the given image?

8. The government formed by an alliance of two or more political parties.
9. The people in democracy participate in the process called _____ to elect their representative.
10. The earliest form of democracy.

C. Answer the following questions:

1. What do you understand by the term “Equality”?
2. Explain briefly types of Equality.
3. Distinguish between direct and indirect democracy.

D. Long Answer type Questions:

1. “Is it necessary to recognise the dignity of all individuals”. Justify
2. “A coalition government is a stable form of government”. Justify with a suitable example.
3. Do you think a “democratic government” is a better form of government? Support your answer with a suitable example.

E. Read the following scenarios and explain why they represent political, social, or economic inequality.

- i. A government policy that provides tax breaks and subsidies exclusively to large corporations, while small businesses struggle to compete.
- ii. An employer refusing to hire individuals with disabilities, citing concerns about workplace productivity and accommodation costs.
- iii. A social media platform that restricts access to certain features based on users' geographic location, limiting opportunities for communication and networking.

A housing market where property prices in affluent neighbourhoods are significantly higher than in lower-income areas, limiting access to quality housing for low-income families.